PLYMOUTH, THURSDAY,
OCTOBER 7, 1858

The County Expenses.

As the County expenditures are the burden of the delinquent Republican candidates' song, we have taken the trouble to examine the record in references to the indebtedness of the County; and the means of liquidating the same.

The Auditor's Report to the County Commissioners at their June term, 1858, shows the entire indebtedness of the County, at that time, to be $3,630. The amount of delinquent tax returned to the Auditor, by the Treasurer, was something over $12,000; of this, there was about the sum of $5,500 County tax, proper. A portion of it will not be collected, of course; but it is reasonable to suppose that there will not be more than $1,000 lost, which would leave $4,500. In addition to this, there is the sum of $924 due from the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company, for 1857, which the Auditor of Allen County informs us he has made arrangements to have paid in April, 1859; this, added to the $4,500 would make $5,400, which is about $1,800 over and above the County indebtedness.

The Republicans are circulating the statement in different parts of the County, that our County indebtedness is $5,000—some put it as high as $10,000—but are very careful not to say a word about the amount due the County. Any person, with ordinary discerning powers, can see from the foregoing figures that the bug-bear story of the Republicans is for political effect, and not for the purpose of posting the people in regard to the facts.

The expenses of the County cannot be calculated one year in advance; but the Commissioners estimate the probable expenditures of the County, and levy the tax accordingly. If the year should prove to be an unhealthy one, the expenses of the County, for 1857, which they estimate is taken. It was not expected that they would foresee that there would be a storm which would damage our Jail to the amount of three or four hundred dollars. The Poor are taken care of by the Township Trustees, and the Commissioners allow their orders, or those interested appeal.

The fees in criminal cases, the allowances of Jurors, Bailiffs, Assessors, Commissioners, Road Viewers, Judges of Elections, &c., are all fixed by law. The law makes provision for taking care of the Insane, and specifies the allowance for the different items of expense connected therewith. From these, and many other allowances made by law, it will be seen that but few of the county expenses can be reduced, unless the laws are changed. The Commissioners have but a very small margin left to operate upon for the purpose of reducing the expenses of the County. Last year, the amount of receipts was within two dollars of being equal to the expenses.

After examining the County records, and the acts of our County officials, we are assured that every officer has discharged his duty faithfully. Their duties are plainly marked out, and if they fail to discharge them properly, any citizen of the County can file an affidavit, setting forth cause of complaint, and have the matter investigated. If they fail to do this, but sneak behind the contemptible and cowardly plea that "it's no use, they have all the money," &c., you may conclude that they know their statements to be false, else they would bring forward some testimony for the purpose of substantiating them. "Until they do this, set them down as those who 'falsify the record.'" The delinquent Republican candidates do not tell the people that nearly one half our County expenses are from orders and allowances of Republican Judges. We do not charge them with making allowances not authorized by law, but mention the fact to show the unfairness of those who are so anxious to get the management of the County affairs.

We have given a general outline of the state of our County finances; the statements are all taken from the record, and are not mere idle rumors, but are facts that dare not be denied. Their leaders manufacture false statistics in regard to the expenditures of the County. They charge our officers with taking more fees than the law allows—squandering the people's money, and other crimes equally black—but bring no proof. Until they prove their statements correct, we shall consider them wholly and entirely false.

Mr. Colfax Backs Down.

Contrary to the expectation of ever man who loves truth's sake, the Republican candidate for Congress utterly refused to meet and divide the time in a free and fair discussion of the issues between the Democratic and Republican parties, when the proposition was submitted to him at this place on Saturday last, through Mr. Barnett on the part of the Democrats.

Mr. Beech of Indianapolis, having on appointment in this place on the same day with Mr. Colfax, and a large number of both parties being present it was hoped by the honest part of the Republicans, that a fair and friendly discussion would elicit truth and expose error, and that no public man should fear to have principles investigated upon which he believed the future happiness and well being of the government depended.

But no, this could not be done, by this Hero of Republicanism: he is very clear of meeting a Democrat when one is ready, willing, and able to expose and unmask the hypocrite and demagogue; and hold up to merited scorn and contempt his public acts as a Legislator. This Hero is a fair and friendly discussion would elicit truth and expose error, and that no public man should fear to have principles investigated upon which he believed the future happiness and well being of the government depended.

Many Republicans were mortified at the refusal of Mr. Colfax to so reasonable and fair a proposition, and declared that if they could not hear both sides of a question discussed, that they would not listen to him. And did not.

Mr. Colfax sang the same old song, to the same old tune that he has ever since the canvass commenced. He bored his hearers for over two hours!

Mr. Beech delivered to address's, one at two o'clock and the other at night to the great satisfaction of his large and attentive audience. The Democracy never felt better than they did during his two able speeches.—Pulaski Democrat, 14th inst.

EVERY VOTE CAST FOR J. O. PARKS IS A VOTE FOR PUBLISHING THE ITEMS OF COUNTY EXPENSES IN THE M. C. REPUBLICAN AT A COST OF $7,000.

"WHITE FOLKS GETTING SASSY,"
A few days ago while conductor Wood-all's train was stopping at Xenia, three "colored germans" got aboard and attempted to enter the ladies' car. The conductor stopped them, and told them that if they wished passage they must go further forward. The conductor spoke to the brakeman eyed the trio, who evidently intended to ride in that car and no other. They did not like the looks of the sentinel, however, and after growling awhile one of them said: "Come on, gents; let's go take that forward car. White folks getting so sassy now-a-days, dat gemmen have no respect shoud en."

They took the forward car, much to the regret of the brakeman, who euge fists just then began to itch for a few fancy strokes.—Goshen Democrat.

Let us have "negro equality," and the above will only be a shadow of what will follow. Black folks will get so sassy that white folks will have no respect showed 'em.

FIVE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY OFFICES WERE RETURNED DELINQUENT FOR NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES!!!!

PITTSBURG, FORT WAYNE AND CHICAGO RAILROAD.—This great road, with the Pennsylvania Central, has contracted for six superb sleeping cars, to be furnished and placed on the road by the first of November, when the P. F. W. and C. Road will be finished into our city. The road, we are informed, will be opened in due form, with a grand excursion to Philadelphia.—Chicago Times.

Two children, one eight and the other four and a half years old, were accidentally carried off in a balloon recently, from Rome, eighteen miles east of Centralia, Ill. Mr. Harvey, the father, was floating them up and down, when the cord slipped from his hands. The balloon took an easterly direction.

[The balloon landed about 30 miles from where it ascended, and the children were safely restored to their parents]

When the enlargement shall be completed the whole length of the Canal, it is expected that wheat will be carried from Buffalo to New York for two cents a bushel.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!
That FIVE of the REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES were returned DELINQUENT FOR NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES, for last year!

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!
That EVERY REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE, for County Office, in Marshall County, (with but ONE exception) has been returned DELINQUENT for the NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES for last year.

We mention this as "A little relief to [friends] in distress."

Last week, the steamer New World took from New York to Albany a load of freight amounting to 550 tons, besides a number of passengers.

Gone!

Gone! Ah, that word sinks like a funeral knell upon the heart! Gone, all those dear old scenes of childhood and youth's more thinking hours; they rose like the sun of infancy's morn, flung down their meridian blaze in youth, sank beneath the horizon ere manhood.

Gone! she of the rosy lip and dew bright eye, sank down among June's roses, in the pleasant sleep of death, the soul's idol. She died smiling, for her soul knew no sorrow.

Gone? Where? To Heaven where the angels are. The forgotten melodies of old came thronging back through the halls of memory as sweetly as when they were sung by loved ones, and plucked the shadows from the years of long ago.

Gone! But not forever. The golden gates of Heaven are not bolted, and loved ones are not parted on that radiant shore. Gone! noble hearts and true; gone to swell the countless millions in the dim land of spirits. Warm hearts that beat no more but moulder in the loathsome tomb.

Gone! But to return more bright when Time, the first link of the great chain of Eternity, shall be lost from sight.—W. A. Taylor.

DON'T SCRATCH YOUR TICKET.

Go to Work.
A general panic seems to pervade all, and each man waits for his neighbor to set the example of going to work.

So long as we sapinely bewail our misfortunes, no better time will ever come.—The story of the man who when his wagon stuck fast in the mire, instead of putting his shoulder to the wheel, bawled in vain to the gods for help, is as applicable now as then; and it will only be by our ceasing lamentation and going to work, that we shall ever get out of the slough of despondence in which we are now stuck. Let every man go to work at whatever he can find to do. Earn the old lesson of contentment, and if we cannot get white bread we must eat brown.

If we cannot make fortunes, let us be contented to make livelihoods. If we will work upon this idea, we shall soon see a different state of things. The soil will again be made to yield its fruit in due season; trade will revive and all will go on well till another season of prosperity makes us reckless, and we fall back again into old habits. The lesson has been a severe one, and it is to be hoped, proportionately lasting.—Mich. City Enterprise.

VOTE FOR C. H. REEVE.

The Crops in Ireland.
The following harvest report is from Cork, Ireland:

"The sickle is already busy on all sides, and a golden harvest is falling beneath its strokes. The crops of all kind are so abundant and so entirely free from even the appearance of disease, or failure, that this may be considered the first year of plenty since the famine. The yield of produce is far beyond the measure of the best years we have had for a long time, and the country may at length congratulate itself in the assurance that its troubles are at an end. Even the potatoes seem to have recovered the firmness and sweetness of its best days. In point of prosperity, Ireland need envy no country in Europe at this moment."

VOTE FOR VANVALKENBURGH

The following should be read by every man who has neglected to subscribe for the Paper in his own county:

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said, I will my Country Paper take, both for my own and family's sake? If such there be, let him repent, and have the paper to him sent; and if he pass a happy winter, he is advance should pay the Printer."

"And Still they Come!"
KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.
That MOSES KEYSER, Republican Candidate for Commissioner, was returned DELINQUENT for the non-payment of his Taxes for 1857.

And yet Another!
KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!
That JAMES PLANT, the Republican Candidate for Assessor of Union Township, was returned DELINQUENT for the non-payment of his Taxes for the years, 1855, 1856 and 1857.

We shall make additions to the above list of Candidates, from week to week, until it is completed.

Are men who manage their own private affairs so loosely, fit to be trusted with the affairs of the Public?

VOTE FOR WILLIAM C. EDWARDS.

Man are born with two eyes, but with one tongue, in order that they should see twice as much as they hear.

Frugality may be termed the daughter of prudence, the sister of temperance, and the parent of liberality.

"Madam," said a polite traveller to a teasy landlady, "if I see proper to help myself to this milk, is there any impropriety in it?" "I don't know what you mean; but if you mean to insinuate that there is anything dirty in that milk, I'll give you to understand that you have struck the wrong house. There isn't the first hair in that milk; for as soon as I found the cat was drowned in it, I went right off and strained it over."

The horrified young man declined partaking of the cat-flavored milk.

VOTE FOR THOMAS McDONALD.

No Young Lady

Can be too well instructed in anything that will affect the comfort of a family. Whatever position in society she may occupy, she needs a practical knowledge of the duties of housekeeping. She may be placed in circumstances that it is not necessary for her to do much domestic labor; but on this account she needs no less knowledge than if she was obliged to preside personally over the cooking stove and pantry. Indeed, I have often thought it was more difficult to direct others, and it requires more experience, than to do the same work with our own hands.

Mothers are frequently so nice and particular in their domestic arrangements, that they do not like to give up any of them to their daughters. This is a great mistake, for they are often burdened with labor and need relief. Children should be early taught to make themselves useful—to assist parents in every way in their power, and consider it a privilege to do so.

Domestic labor is by no means incompatible with the highest degree of cultivated refinement and mental culture. Many of the most elegant and accomplished women have looked well to the household duties, and have honored themselves and their husbands in so doing.

VOTE FOR J. B. N. KLINGER

"I don't think you need trouble yourself to visit me any longer, Doctor!" "But, my friend, I had better visit you as long as you are in danger."

"Oh, sir, I fear then I shall never be out of danger!"

When a man chooses the rewards of virtue, he should remember that to resign the pleasures of vice is part of the bargain.

"A savage proceeding"—an Indian running away.

When men of infamy soar to the places of grandeur, they light a torch to make their shame more manifest to the world.

PEN.—A lever small enough to be used by any man, but strong enough to raise the world.

A HIGH RENT.—A hole in the crown of your hat.

VOTE FOR JACOB KNOBLOCK.

What is the reason, said one man to another, "that you and your wife are always disagreeing?" "Because," replied he, we are both of one mind; she wants to be master and so do I."

"Why, my dear sir, are you always gazing at sunsets?" "Because they are the only golden prospects that I have before me."

A lady being asked the other day why she chose to live a single life, she simply replied, "Because I am not able to support a husband."

"If dress makes the man, what does the tailor make? From ten to twenty dollars profit."

What is the difference between a confirmed sinner and a beggar? One is a mendicant, and the other is a mendicant.

Don't express your opinions too decidedly before those who would grow offended at them; remember that all men die sometimes, and that seven out of ten make their wills.

Why is a weathercock like a loafer?—Because it is constantly going around doing nothing.

VOTE FOR ABRAHAM BOYD.

The Sister.
There is something lovely in the name of Sister, and its utterance seldom fails to call up the warm affections of the gentle heart. The thoughts that circle round it are all quiet, beautiful and pure. Passion has no place with its associations. The hopes and fears of love, those strong emotions, powerful enough to extinguish life itself, find no home here. The bride is the star, the talisman of the heart, the diamond above all price, bright and blazing in the noon-day sun; the sister, a gem of milder light, calm as the mellow moon, and set in a coronet of pearls.

The Republicans say they WILL carry the election in Marshall County this fall. Democrats, be on your guard: Grave charges are to be made by the Republicans on the eve of the election.

Parson Brownlow says there are many idle men in Kentucky, and too much mean liquor drunk; and that is the reason that the State is becoming Democratic.—Upon this the Louisville Democrat remarks, "That it is not the first time that the prevalence of vice has stimulated virtue."

GO TO THE ELECTION EARLY AND STAY TILL THE LAST VOTE IS POLLED.

Mr. Vrooman believed that China had been kept closed until now because the churches were not prepared to christianize it before, and thought that three hundred and fifty thousand laborers could be immediately employed.

Sunshine and Clouds.

Some real lives do—for certain days or years—actually anticipate the happiness of heaven, and I believe, if such perfect happiness is once felt by good people to the wicked it never comes—its sweet effect is never lost. Whatever trials follow, whatever pains of sickness or shades of death, the glory precedent still shines thro' cheering the keen anguish and tinging the deep cloud. I will go further. I do believe that there are some human beings so born, so reared, so guided from a soft cradle to a calm, late grave, that no excessive suffering penetrates their journey. And often these are not pampered, selfish beings, but natures elect, harmonious and benign; men and women mild with charity, kind agents with God's kind attributes.

What then? His will be done, as done surely it will be, whether we humble ourselves to resignation or not.—Charlotte Bronte.

LOOK OUT FOR BOGUS TICKETS.

State Expenditures.
The Citizen, an independent Republican paper of conservative proclivities, in commenting upon the management of our State affairs under the Democratic administration pays the following deserved and just compliment to the State officers:

Setting political influence entirely aside, we, as independent journalists, take occasion to say that the course of the present financial officers of the State has been marked by ability and wisdom. Left, by the blind folly of both parties, in the most embarrassing circumstances of the affairs of State to carry on the benevolent institutions to keep going, the credit and honor of the Commonwealth to maintain, and deprived of the regular means of doing this vast work—what financier, what good citizen, what friend of humanity would hesitate to make use of such instrumentalities as offered themselves to prevent the wide-spread disaster, which would inevitably have followed any hesitation or lack of courage? They did the best they could under such circumstances—they did right. They prevented the people of the State from being ground to powder between the upper and nether millstones of opposing parties, and saved us from devastation and social dissolution. For this they deserve thanks instead of denunciations, and the least that can be done for them in return,
